Six Georgia Companies Honored at Pan Asian Gala Phil Bolton Atlanta - 11.22.09

Ambassador Parnohadiningrat entertains guests at Pan Asian American gala. Six of 10 companies that received "Top 10 Asian American Business Awards" from the U.S. Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce, Southeast chapter, are based in Georgia.

The awards were presented on Nov. 14 during the chamber's annual gala that was attended by 300 guests at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in downtown Atlanta, including Sudjadnan Pamohadiningrat, Indonesia's ambassador to the United States.

This Pan Asian American gala took place under a joint-hosting partnership with the Indonesian-American Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Pamohadiningrat attended the Indonesian-American chamber's gala last year, and during both events gave an address and then entertained the guests by playing his saxophone.

The Indonesian chamber has been the first to partner with the Pan Asian chamber. According to Fify Manan, gala committee chair, the Pan Asian chamber seeks to partner on the event with different local ethnic chambers in coming years.

The U.S. Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1984 to support the communal interests of Asian Americans and related groups. Susan Au Allen, the chamber's president and CEO, came to Atlanta from Washington to speak at the event.

In his address, Mr. Pamohadiningrat spoke of the bonds tying the U.S. and Indonesia together. With a population of 230 million, he said Indonesia was the third largest democracy in the world trailing only India and the U.S.

"As a country with the largest Moslem population, Indonesians are also proud to showcase that Islam and democracy are compatible to one another," he added.
